

Table 1: Number of Revolving Door Oil and Gas Industry Lobbyists (2013)	Number
Lobbyists Working on Oil and Gas Issues
Lobbyists working on oil and gas issues	763
Revolving Door Lobbyists
Lobbyists who previously worked or interned for a Member of Congress, congressional committee, or federal agency	471
U.S. House of Representatives or U.S. Senate
Lobbyists who worked or interned for one or more Members of Congress	318
Lobbyists who were former Member of Congress	23
Committees with Jurisdiction over Oil and Gas Issues
Lobbyists who were former members of the relevant committees	15
Lobbyists who worked or interned on a House or Senate Committee	74*
Lobbyists who worked or interned for the House Appropriations Committee	7
Lobbyists who worked or interned for the House Energy & Commerce Committee	13
Lobbyists who worked or interned for the House Ways & Means Committee	10
Lobbyists who worked or interned for the House Natural Resources Committee	6
Lobbyists who worked or interned for the House Science, Space, and Technology Committee	1
Lobbyists who worked or interned for the Senate Appropriations Committee	6
Lobbyists who worked or interned for the Senate Energy & Natural Resources Committee	10
Lobbyists who worked or interned for the Senate Environment & Public Works Committee	10
Lobbyists who worked or interned for the Senate Commerce, Science, & Transportation Committee	4
Lobbyists who worked or interned for the Senate Finance Committee	9
Federal Agencies
Lobbyists who worked or interned at a federal agency	125
Lobbyists who worked or interned at the Department of Energy	20
Lobbyists who worked or interned at the Department of the Interior	10
The White House
Lobbyists who worked or interned at the White House	48
Reference: Center for Responsive Politics - http://www.opensecrets.org/
* The total counts two lobbyists who worked on multiple committees only once.	