ICB Financial Receives $6 Million in New Capital From the US Treasury

On Monday March 9, 2009, 6:00 am EDT

ONTARIO, Calif., March 9 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- ICB Financial (OTC Bulletin Board: ICBN - News) the parent of Inland Community Bank, N.A., today announced that on March 6, 2009, it received $6,000,000 in new capital through the US Treasury's Capital Purchase Program (CPP).

James Cooper, President and CEO of ICB Financial, noted that the Capital Purchase Program as currently structured is intended to help the healthy banks that are presently "well capitalized" to continue lending to business customers through this period of reduced economic activity and uncertainty.

He continued by emphasizing that Inland Community Bank's capital ratios at December 31, 2008 greatly exceeded the Regulatory minimums as outlined below:

Total Risk-Based Capital - 13.74%; minimum for well capitalized under regulatory guidelines is 10.00%.

Tier 1 Leverage Capital - 10.79%; minimum for well capitalized under regulatory guideline is 5.0%.

Mr. Cooper closed by saying that this additional capital received from the US Treasury will only help to strengthen a very strong community bank and help assure its continued stability for the years to come.
