LEGAL NOTICE

This Certificate of Vehicle Title is proof of vehicle ownership and should be kept in a safe place. The vehicle title does not authorize the vehicle to be driven on public roadways without being properly registered. Upon sale of the vehicle, the seller must complete all sections in the assignment and deliver the title along with the vehicle to the purchaser. The purchaser must sign the assignment acknowledging the sale and the odometer statement. Only a licensed dealer is allowed to re-assign the title. All other purchasers must present the assigned title to Division of Motor Vehicles within 30 days and apply for a new title. This Certificate of Vehicle Title is void and is not transferable if it bears any alterations, erasures, or is in any way defaced including strikeovers or the use of white-out fluid. If the vehicle is completely wrecked or dismantled that it will never be titled again, this Certificate of Vehicle Title must be surrendered to the Division of Motor Vehicles.

Federal law requires that the owner state the mileage upon transfer of ownership. An inaccurate or untruthful statement may result in fines and/or imprisonment. Odometer statements are not required for trailers or for vehicles weighing 12,000 lbs. or greater unladen weight.
